Who Composed the Cleveland Convention

The Missouri Democrat in an article on the political character of the Cleveland Convention after showing that the "vigorous prosecution of the war" for the perpetuity of the Union was not the object of the so called Radicals, proceeds as follows

But more significant still was the speech of John Cochrane, candidate for Vice President, and who must understand and speak according to the views of his principal The entire speech is about free speech, the freedom of the press, the privilege of habeas corpus, &c and is made up of precisely such stuff as we have long been accustomed to hear from Copperhead stump orators, and read in the columns of Copperhead journals Not a word has it for the war or the brave men who are fighting its battles But he does not leave Fremont a position to inference merely He thus speaks of his leader on the [illegible]

"There may be gentlemen here to night to ratify their individual favorites I hear in one direction the name of George B McClellan [Tremendous cheers] And ere the echo dies away of that name I hear the name of John C Fremont [Renewed cheers] Twin cherries upon one stalk, they indicate but the one great principle of freemen

"Now if John C Fremont be indeed a 'twin cherry' with George B McClellan, he is a bite which every [illegible] and Radical stomach must reject

But John Cochrane was not the only orator, oh [illegible] No Missouri, or, rather, the Fremont party of Missouri, had a representative here and who think you, he was? No other than N C Claiborne, Esq, of St Louis, whose address preceded that of Cochrane And who is N.C Claiborne? By reference to the proceedings of a [illegible] meeting called by courtesy a Democratic Convention held at Washington Hall, in this city, a few months ago we find that N. C. Claiborne was the principal orator on the occasion, and by reference to the proceedings of the State Democratic Convention the most disloyal ever held in the State held at Mercantile Library Hall, in this city on the [illegible] day of June last, it will be found that Mr N C Claiborne was a prominent and active member [illegible] By referring to the list of delegates [illegible] the Chicago Convention by the Mercantile Library Hall Convention, it will be seen that at the head of the list of alternate delegates at large stands the name of N C Claiborne And this man N C Claiborne, the Fremont party of Missouri sends as its representative to speak for it at New York And such a speech as he made was [illegible] never before heard in that city One [illegible] that [illegible], that of candor, for Mr C asserted that he was a Democrat and an out-and out Democrat at that Said Mr Claiborne, according to the New York Herald's report.

"He was a Democrat—had been a member of the party from youth till now Had stood by that party in the past and would stand by its principles in the future His party was the party of the Constitution and the Union They had sworn by the Constitution of the United States to uphold the principles [illegible] no man could claim to be a Democrat who would not stand by the Constitution and [illegible] In the name of the National Democracy [illegible] traitor, with which they [illegible] hurled back in the teeth of the [illegible] despotism that now ruled, [illegible] them [illegible] in the words of the poet

I bid them defiance turn and lie
And in their throat give them the lie"

To prove [illegible] he is, he proceeds to [illegible] upon the war as follows

"None can love war for the sake of war Enough of blood has been shed (Cheers) If then, we can restore the Union and make friends of the South will any one deny that that should be done? This contest [illegible] under Lincoln It was his election that brought on the war and every act of his has widened the gulf between the North and the South Give the South a platform—a bridge upon which they can come to rejoin us, and they will accept it That platform is the Cleveland platform, and the great plank of that platform, which will be gladly accepted is the Monroe doctrine Say to the South, tear down your few stars and bars, and once more take up the bright galaxy of stars, and let us drive from the continent all kings, and emperors, and potentates' (Cheers.) That will be the talisman to touch the whole Southern heart (cheers) when once they learn that you have driven A. Lincoln from the Presidency of the States

After reading the above, there is no difficulty to understand Mr Claiborne's Democracy He is a Copperhead Democrat, and we infer from the circumstances, must be a Fremont Democrat—Mr Pretorius' kind of "Democrat"

What appears to have aroused Mr Claiborne's Democracy just at this time was the fact, as he stated, that the freedom of himself and friends had been interfered with in Missouri by Mr Lincoln Their freedom of speech had been abridged, their personal liberty curtailed, and he might have added that a good many of them had been shot—and justly, too—as rebels in arms. Says Mr C

"When you accept the nomination of the Cleveland Convention you do well It says you shall have free speech; but in my State we have been prevented from giving utterance to our thoughts That despotism which stifled men's tongues and stifled the press is passing away and in a few months more the man who oppressed us shall have passed away He had come all the way to learn the feeling here The feeling in the Northwest was to save the Republic and to hurl from power the tyrant who presides over the United States [Cheers] We do not like Mr Lincoln has trampled on the Constitution given us by Washington He swore to support it, and he has violated it, and the man who denies it has little knowledge of the English language and less truth The President has trampled on the Constitution [Hisses] It is not necessary to prove this. There have been arbitrary arrests and men confined without a charge He has stifled freedom of speech and freedom of the press Abe Lincoln is not the man for President nohow"

As a finale to Mr Claiborne, we introduce the following gem from his oration

"Abe Lincoln has not got the intelligence, and lastly, he has not the dignity of character necessary It was said Nero fiddled while Rome burned It is too true to make a joke of it, while our nation is struggling in death that the President in Washington deals in jokes and smutty anecdotes He is not, therefore fit for office again A friend said I should not complain of Lincoln being a jester, as he saved the Cabinet at Washington the expense of maintaining a state fool" [Laughter]

The above shows the beautiful character of the mixture which the Cleveland strategem as the New York Independent terms it, is developing Truly, the Democratic party, as Fremont stated in his conversation with Wendell Phillips is furnishing the "largest contingent of his supporters No wonder that David Plumb, one of his former New York anti slavery supporters comes out in a public repudiation

AN OBDURATE REBEL MELTED TO TEARS —The stoniest heart, though bound up in tripple steel must at times feel a touch of some humanizing influences and a copy of the Richmond Whig furnishes an affecting corroboration of the truism when it tells us that the first tears shed by General John C Breckenridge since the war were shed on Friday night the 11 instant, on account of the death of his favorite horse that had borne him since the battle of Shiloh Poor man! poor beast! No one could maintain his equanimity over such an equine misfortune we have heard of a horse laugh, and why not a horse cry! To think of the redoubtable General who has never betrayed the twitching of a muscle until his horse was killed and then blubbered John will write an epitaph we suppose "Multis ille flebit," &c Sidney Johnson fell and Roger Hanson fell, and scores upon scores of the young boys whose graves were dug by John's artful and accursed eloquence have paid the debt of the rebellion and yet John like a stone or an Indian at the stake, never manifested the least emotion until that Friday night when his Bucephalus was killed! We can honor the susceptibility of the man who sorrows for the loss of a favorite animal, but if John C Breckinridge, from June, 1861 to June 1864 never shed a tear, when he had so many occasions to think of the misery he had caused the happy families he had made desolate his inglorious apostasy from the high creed of his State his Lucifer like fall when urged to rebel by the demon of ambition, and the friends who have fallen around him like seared leaves scorched by the hot blasts of war —if, we say this man has never shed a tear before he is much more of a brute than the horse —Louisville Journal

THE GODFATHER'S COUNSEL —In 1837, a lady in New York having named her son Andrew Jackson, and desired the old hero to be sponsor at his baptism, General Jackson wrote

"I inclose herewith the usual gift to this namesake that I have bestowed to all my others—it bears the impress of the eagle of his country, displayed on all her banners—and as the child grows in years and in wisdom I have to depend upon you to explain to him, with this injunction of his godfather, that when he arrives at the years of manhood he will always be found sustaining the eagle of his country from the insult or grasp of a foreign foe, and the still more dangerous enemy, the intestine traitor, who may engage in the wicked scheme of severing our glorious Union, upon which depends the perpetuation of our happy Government, which will endure so long as our confederated system lasts and no longer Instil in his mind that our Federal Union must be preserved"

Flax is rapidly coming into large use for manufacturing purposes Great improvements have recently been made, both in the process of bleaching and in its manufacture For most purposes it is far superior to cotton, and the ingenuity brought to bear upon its manufacture, in consequence of the existing high price of that material, promises to secure for it a far more important position, in our manufacturing industry, than it has hitherto attained, and a permanent one Flax is now produced cheaply, white as snow, or colored with the most brilliant hues Calico is now made of about 50 per cent of flax, cotton flannel ditto, and a variety of fabrics, which have hitherto been made of cotton are now manufactured with a large proportion of flax Flax is even worked in combination with wool, into a very handsome broadcloth

Farmers are preparing for a much more extensive crop the coming season —Ex

On all dispatches the tariff on which is less than $1 50, the Federal tax is five cents When the tax amounts to $1 50 and less than $3 50, the tax is ten cents When $2 50 and less than $3 50, the tax is fifteen cents When $3 50 and less $4 50 the tax is twenty cents When $4 50 and less than $5 50, the tax is twenty five cents When $5 50 and less than $6 50 the tax is thirty cents When $6 50 and less than $11, the tax is fifty cents When $11 and less than $21, the tax is one dollar When $21 and more, the tax is one dollar and fifty cents On all Eastern dispatches the tax is five per cent. on each dollar, and on each fraction of a dollar

AN HISTORICAL BALE OF COTTON —When the steamer Lexington was burned in Long Island Sound, January 13, 1840, David Crowley, of Providence, second mate, was saved on a bail of cotton, upon which he drifted two days and nights, and finally went ashore at Riverhead, Long Island This bale of cotton Mr Crowley has preserved with religious care until the present time, but the price of this staple to day has brought out the sacred relic for sale It is of remarkable quality, and the three hundred pound bale is worth from $400 to $500.

We learn from the Lima correspondence of the Bulletin of July 12th, that considerable anxiety is being felt regarding the United States steamer Wateree, which sailed from Hampton Roads on the 5th of last March, to augment the Pacific Squadron, since that time no news has been received concerning her

Recent advices received at the State Department at Washington contain the important announcement that upwards of 10,000 Swiss emigrants await passage to the United States at Havre and other European ports

The Great Eastern has taken 5,000 tons of hard coal on board and will shortly leave Liverpool for Sheerness or Deptford, where she will be fitted with water tanks in which the Atlantic cable now being made by Messrs Glass, Elliot & Co will be stowed away as fast as it is completed

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to August 15.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC Aug 1[illegible] —Burnside was here yesterday and left the command last evening

Wilcox temporarily commands the ninth corps

It was reported last week the enemy intended to make a flank attack on our left but up to this time no demonstration has been made Considerable firing was kept up all night between the pickets on the centre and right

Yesterday morning heavy firing was heard in the direction of James river lasting two hours

It was reported that an attack had been made by the rebel rams on the working party of Butler's force who are cutting a canal across the Peninsula on James river

The Commercial's Washington dispatch says We hear that Gen Grant has some important movement in view It is improper to indicate now A large number of transports have been sent down the river It is surmised to assist Grant in removing his troops Large bodies of cavalry have been brought here

A heavy movement up the Shenandoah looked for soon

MIDDLETOWN VA 12 —Our cavalry came up with the rear guard of the enemy early this afternoon A slight skirmishing ensued in the town

Our infantry [illegible] upon the heels of our cavalry The rebels are now in the line of battle opposite Cedar Creek, across the Staunton Pike between two and three miles distant They occupy high land beyond which forms a strong defensive position They are said to have two lines of battle half a mile long Like us they have been severely marched and being closely pressed may have seized the opportunity of securing a position for rest

CEDAR CREEK Aug 12 —5 o'clock P M —Our skirmishers have just crossed the creek and are now skirmishing Our skirmish line and the enemy's is plainly perceptible The firing is moderately brisk Only a portion of the enemy's line of battle visible and that is on a distant hill No artillery firing has taken place

5.10 P M —The rebels now show themselves on distant ridges and have opened upon our skirmishing line from guns posted in admirable position but done no damage The skirmishing is getting heavier Our artillery is just replying Prisoners captured say Gordon's division of Ewell's corps is immediately in our front They probably make up the rebels rear guard A decisive battle here does not seem at all probable at present

6 o'clock —The skirmishing is still going on

WASHINGTON Aug 13 —Rebel deserters from Richmond say that on the 6th four trains of cars arrived bringing troops from Petersburg It is said that a division left immediately to reinforce Early A large body of cavalry arrived the same day and departed in the same direction

WASHINGTON, Aug 1[illegible] —Official dispatches have been received by the Navy Department from Farragut, dated Mobile Bay the 5th, confirming the accounts heretofore received of our success After the Tennessee surrendered, the rebel gunboat Fort Morgan succeeded in getting under the protection of Fort Morgan This terminated the action for the day

Farragut sent a flag of truce to the commanding officer at Fort Morgan, Gen Page, to say that if he would allow the wounded of the fleet as well as their own, to be taken to Pensacola, where they could be better cared for than here, he would send a vessel

Page consented and the Metacomet was dispatched. The total loss on our side is 40 killed, 88 wounded On the rebel ram Tennessee were captured 20 officers and 170 men, on the Selma, 90 officers and men

NEW YORK, Aug 15—The Herald's correspondent says

When the Selma surrendered, it was found on boarding her that she had lost fearfully The decks were covered with dead and dying, and her scuppers ran with blood Her commander, Lieut Comstock was lying dead across the breech of a gun with his bowels torn out

The Tennessee attempted to avoid the monitors and made for the wooden ships, but the flagship Monongahela followed her up and struck her amidships with her terrible prow, causing the huge monitor to reel like a drunken man The Hartford then grappled the Tennessee, but further bloodshed was saved by the latter raising a white flag The same horrible slaughter was visible on her as on the Selma.

Capt Girard now commands the captured ram We captured nearly 300 prisoners and have possession of Dauphin Island

The Hartford was injured more than any other ship, having been struck by every one of our own except the Oneida

A large force marched from Pensacola to invest Fort Morgan and thereby prevent the escape of the garrison

NASHVILLE, Aug 12.—Sherman telegraphs that deserters and refugees concur in reporting Mobile in our possession. Report not believed

The Government has dispatches from Gen Canby to August 6th which state that the monitor Tecumseh was sunk by a torpedo and not by the guns of Fort Morgan

The Navy Department has information of the destruction of two rebel salt works on the coast of Georgia

The Commercial's special says that Sherman's success at Atlanta is not considered problematic The capture of the city is expected soon

No material change is expected at Petersburg till other demonstrations have been worked out.

The report that Beauregard had gone to Atlanta is treated here as an absurdity

Passengers from New Orleans report the rebels in strong force within six or seven miles of the city They are fortifying a place, apparently with the intention of making it a base of future operations. They are commanded by Dick Taylor The Feche district is also occupied by the enemy in large force, to prevent the advance of our troops through that region to Texas

The secessionists of New Orleans say it is of no importance if Mobile be lost to the rebels

The Macon, Ga, Telegraph of a late date notices the departure of 1,600 militia from that place for Atlanta and says the same number left a few weeks ago under Gen G H Smith

The Georgia and South Carolina papers rejoice that the rebel army has at length made a stand and appears to be relieved of the panic which prevailed while Johnston was retreating

NEW YORK, August 13 —The Herald's special from Southwest Pass, La, says the fleet under Farragut passed the forts at the entrance of Mobile Bay at 8 o'clock on the morning of the 5th The Tecumseh was blown up by a rebel torpedo No other vessels were lost The rebel ram Tennessee surrendered after an obstinate resistance Admiral Buchanan lost a leg and is a prisoner The land forces under Granger, invested Fort Gaines with the light batteries It is reported that Fort Powell at Grant's Pass was blown up and evacuated by the rebels

While one of the sailing boats of the Surf Hotel was cruising outside this morning she discovered a yawl boat containing 16 persons belonging to the pilot boat James F[illegible], brigs B[illegible] and Richard, bark Bay State and schooner Atlantic These vessels were captured and burned by the Confederate pirate Tallahassee

Passengers by the Evening Star report having chased on August 11th a pirate steamer four hours Three shots were fired by the pirates

NEW YORK Aug 1[illegible] —A destructive fire occurred at 9 40 this A M and a half of a block destroyed on Mott & D[illegible] streets

Dispatches from Atlanta Aug 5th say The Federals have been unusually active to day At 1 o'clock, P M yesterday a heavy assault was made upon the works held by our skirmishers After a stubborn resistance the Yankees succeeded in holding the position, but they were subsequently driven out.

Last night an assault was made on our skirmishers which was a complete failure

The Richmond Sentinel of the 10th says There is no doubt that Grant is moving large bodies of men secretly from the front His steamer laden with troops have been seen within a few days moving off

The Commercial says There was a hard fight on Saturday, Sunday and Monday in our front but no general battle The fighting resulted in our favor

The Herald says The Commissioner of Indian Affairs says that all the Indian tribes of the Plains are combined in a war against the whites and that it extends from Texas to the British Possessions

The Times says Burnside claims he carried out all his orders Meade insists he did not and that he failed to attack when ordered and refused to answer his telegrams until the next morning Sixty four dispatches sent by Meade to Burnside [illegible] of the latter that he was expected by Meade to be on hand to throw [illegible] which he believes [illegible] will not be allowed

Gen Curtis from Fort Leavenworth says The Indian war is [illegible] preparations are being made by the Indians [illegible] extensive war yet known [illegible] emissaries to tribes [illegible] telling them to [illegible] would protect them

In saddle Shenandoah Valley Aug 12 —The World says

The rebels continue to retreat and are supposed to be going to Strasburg or Front Royal

It is intensely hot, but the men are in excellent marching order

The movement is to be as rapid as possible as the enemy has the start of us If they continue to retreat the pursuit is likely to be a long one and the battle some days distant

It is probably Early's policy to retreat as far as possible before giving battle

The strength of his army has already been calculated upon [illegible] there should be any emergency

New Orleans papers of the 7th have particulars of Farragut's movements

The Hartford with the Admiral on board steamed up to Fort Morgan and delivered a succession of broadsides and effectually silenced all rebel guns in the water batteries The monitors at the same time engaged the rebel ram Tennessee the latter made several attempts to run down our vessels and finally one of the monitors closed with her She was rammed by the Monongahela and Lackawanna The Hartford attempted to run her down One of the gunboats met the Tennessee on the same errand and collided with her The Tennessee ran out a white flag as she was not much damaged The Tecumseh was sunk by a torpedo but is thought that she could be raised Only ten of her crew are said to be saved The Oneida had a shell explode in her boiler killing thirty men. Buchanan is not expected to live Lieut Comstock commanding the rebel gunboat Selma was killed Her crew were nearly all killed

The Hartford had 2[illegible] killed and [illegible] wounded Our whole loss was 21 killed and wounded

Fort Powell was blown up on the night of the 6th

All of our fleet are inside of the rebel obstructions

NEW YORK Aug 1[illegible] —Admiral Farragut in a letter to Commodore Palmer at New Orleans, says

Early on the 5th, our fleet lashed two and two sailed into the pass close under the guns of Fort Morgan pouring broadside after broadside of grape and cannister, driving the gunners from their places and leaving our vessels exposed only to the fire of Forts Gaines and Powell, which were less effective. At the same time Granger's land batteries poured an enfilading fire on Fort Gaines and caused the evacuation and blowing up of Fort Powell

In passing the Fort the Oneida received a shot which temporarily disabled her machinery but was safely through the fire Her consort monitor Tecumseh one of our foremost was sunk almost instantly, carrying down 100 men, including Cap. Craven The gunboats having passed out of reach of the Forts, were pursued by a formidable rebel ram the Tennessee three iron clads immediately attacked her and battered her so effectually as to compel her to surrender

The ram was but slightly injured Lieut Prentiss of the Monongahela lost both legs Captain Mahoney of the Oneida lost an arm

LEAVENWORTH Aug 15 —The Atchison [illegible] has news from the Little Blue, that the Indians on Sunday commenced an indiscriminate murder of the whites on that section of the stage route The station keepers and the settlers are all leaving The overland coaches have stopped running

Leavenworth dispatches say The Indian outrages continue in northern Kansas People in the northwestern counties have been murdered their crops destroyed and stock driven off Evidence has accumulated that all or nearly all the tribes on the plains have banded together for war

Gen Blunt has issued orders that no arms or ammunition be sold them, and notified all officers having authority of the Indians not to allow them to leave the reservations for the west He says such acts will be taken as proof of hostility and treated accordingly

LAYING OF THE SUBMARINE CABLE —About noon yesterday Mr Haines, the Superintendent and builder of the telegraph to British Columbia in company with a few invited guests went on board the steamer Julia, Capt. Strang and started for Vancouver, having in tow a flat boat, with a reel containing the submarine cable, intended to connect the northern and southern shores of the Columbia river When at a point about a half mile above the town, the cable was well secured around a giant Oak and spliced to the wire which had previously been stretched from this city after which the steamer was headed for the Washington Territory shore, a couple of men paying out the cable as the boat passed slowly along, reaching the point of destination in the course of twenty minutes from the time of starting When all had been successfully accomplished, Supt. Haines attached his portable relay magnet and dispatched sundry messages to this city and San Francisco The party then adjourned to the cabin of the steamer, each gratified at having been instrumental in assisting to lay the first link of cable which will eventually unite this free continent with the dominions of the Czar of all Russias The following is the first dispatch

The party then adjourned to the cabin of the steamer, each gratified at having been instrumental in assisting to lay the first link of cable which will eventually unite this free continent with the dominions of the Czar of all Russians. The following is the first dispatch:

Vancouver, August 16—4:30 P. M.

To the Oregonian:—Messrs. Haines and Strong have just now successfully stretched one and a quarter miles of submarine cable across the Columbia river at this point, which establishes the first telegraphic communication between this our Northwestern Territory and the Eastern States.
A. BUSHWILER.

Burning of the Pitch and Turpentine Works. The Oregon Pitch and Turpentine Works, corner of Front and Clay streets in this city, took fire at about 5 o'clock P. M. yesterday, and in one hour were reduced to ruin. The loss is estimated at $3,000 without insurance. These works had just been put into active operation, and the loss to the proprietors Messrs. T. A. Wood & Co., is much greater in fact than what is set forth above. The origin of the fire is not definitely understood, although it is supposed to have occurred from sparks falling upon the roof, after the fire in the furnace was extinguished, a few moments before. We regret the event very much, as aside from the loss to our friend W. that it deprives us of the benefits to arise from his enterprise, at least for some time.

The Firemen.—The firemen were promptly on the spot at the alarm of fire last evening, and had the first opportunity for over two years to display their energies at a fire. They worked like "tigers," and proved what they could do. Turpentine burned too freely for them to save it, but such exertion would put down a conflagration anywhere else than in a turpentine factory or powder magazine. No. [illegible] ready threw the first stream of water on the fire. An accident occurred between them and No. 3 Company, when playing from opposite sides of the building, in which their pipes were brought to bear upon one another, and it might have terminated in a row, but for the interference of the Chief Engineer. The Hooks disobeyed orders and had great trouble in crossing the superannuated bridge, at the junction of First and Columbia streets, delaying them somewhat.

Personal.—Hon. A. J. Borland, member elect to the Legislature, and Judge Denny, of Wasco county, paid us a visit last evening. We were shown by the former gentleman a specimen of gold, such as is thought to exist in the "lost emigrant" region, now sought by Dr. Denny and party. The specimen is similar in shape to the cobble stones of our pavement, has a solid belt of gold around it, and is fully permeated over the surface with the glittering ore. The weight of the specimen is 23 ozs. It was taken from surface diggings near Canyon City, and purchased by Mr. B. at $250, to be presented to the Ladies' Sanitary Fair.

Distinguished Departures.—Under the above head the Bulletin of the 8th inst., announces that Admiral Denman and suite left San Francisco on Saturday, on the English steamer Devastation for Victoria. This is probably the steamer alluded to yesterday, as having passed the mouth of the Willamette, but in the excitement of the moment our informant must have mixed Vancouver Island and Fort Vancouver also made the passing at the wrong river.

Should be Recorded.—Two men approached Mr. Wood last evening after the fire, and demanded pay for assistance rendered in rolling pitch barrels out of reach of the flames! One of them was named Pat Doblin and the other said he was "an old resident of Portland," and his name had never been recorded yet." It certainly should be now. When a man so far forgets his obligation to his fellow man as to ask pay for a few moments work in such an event, he can certainly be no admirer of the teachings of Confucius.

Fine Key Board.—The New Columbian Hotel key board is about as nice an arrangement of the kind as was ever imported into Portland, and as a consideration that it was manufactured here is that much more to the credit of our mechanics. Messrs. Emil, [illegible] & Co., did the work. The New Columbian is rapidly filling with guests, and mine host, Mr. [illegible], bids fair to be popular with the traveling community. Several rooms more have been fitted up within a few days past that were not expected to be brought into use for some time.

Circuit Court.—In Circuit Court yesterday the great case on record, so far as the number of defendants is concerned, was up for trial. The cause being M. Gilihan, guardian, vs. H. W. Corbett and about one hundred others, involving the claims to valuable real estate in Portland. The day was consumed in arguments and motions upon it.

Passengers and Treasure.—The steamer Wilson G. Hunt arrived from the Cascades yesterday bringing the largest shipment of treasure for the season. The sum in the hands of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Messenger was $50,000. There were eighty passengers, one of whom has given us the result of his questioning, setting the amount in private hands at $125,000.

Took a Bath.—The hammer of the O. S. N. Co.'s spile driver yesterday slipped from its fastenings, and took a dive for the river bottom. It had been "chocked" preparatory to setting another spile, and freeing the "chock" went below, about ten feet too far. It was secured again, after much trouble and tribulation.

A Dog Fight.—The relative merits of a pair of canines were severely tested yesterday afternoon on Stark street, in front of the "Eye-"dentical, in a "bloody" fight—as the Victorian would say—but the contest was not so sanguinary as might have been expected, from the crowd in attendance.

Game.—Will J. Myers shot a fine, fat, young Elk, at Dobbins' Bar, on the Columbia, yesterday morning, a slice of which he forwarded to Loakililems by the Couch last evening. We expect to discuss it at our breakfast table this morning. Thanks Will; the bit was good.

Three B's—The Boston Brown Bread, not a literary production, but a staple article, is issued at the Eagle Bakery every Wednesday and Saturday morning. Persons in want of it can leave their orders, to be delivered any place in the city.

Runaway and Smash Up.—A man was driving a fine colt, to a sulkey, yesterday, the property of Mr. A. M. Starr, of this city, when the animal ran away, breaking the vehicle, and inflicting several wounds both upon itself and the driver.

The Missing Steamer.—At 12 o'clock last night we had received no intelligence of the missing steamer Pacific. The marine reports of the Bulletin, received last evening, indicate that she cleared for Victoria.

Commercial.—The steamer John H. Couch arrived at her wharf in this city from Astoria last evening, and immediately started back, intending to take the bark Sam. Merritt in tow from Springville.

Oregonians should test the merits of Dr. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. While it is highly palatable as a beverage, it is unequaled as an invigorator. In the pursuit of fortune at the mines, many persons are exposed to the attacks of complaints of the digestive organs, and of various kinds of fever. It is the very article that has so long been in demand at the mines. Its daily use will restore the tone of a deranged stomach, impart fresh vitality to the digestive functions, and cheer the spirits. Yet the Bitters is the safest of all stimulants. Let the miner who is exposed to hot and dry, wet and cold, be certain to obtain a supply of the genuine Hostetter Bitters, and he will find it a certain safeguard to health.—Sold by Druggists and dealers generally. jy26daw

"A Slight Cold," Coughs.—Few are aware of the importance of checking a Cough or "SLIGHT COLD" in its first stage; that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, soon attacks the lungs. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" give sure and almost immediate relief. Military Officers and Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket and taken as occasion requires.
Redington & Co., San Francisco, Agents for the Pacific Coast.

Dysentery.—For Dysentery and similar complaints of the Summer season, the PERUVIAN SYRUP has proved a remarkable preventive and cure. By imparting tone to the intestinal mucous membrane, it places this surface in the best possible condition to resist the irritation of crude and indigestible articles of food.

Periodical Headache—so common in uncleared and marshy countries, Tic Douloureux, that most painful affection of the nerves of the face, are often only attacks of ague in disguise—proceeding from the same noxious influence. Jaundice, Dyspepsia and Diarrhœa are frequently but disguised forms of Intermittent Fever. Even Rheumatism and Epilepsy, often result from the same miasmal cause. For such, Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue is an unfailing remedy. By striking at the root of those affections, it applies with equal certainty, as for the cure of Fever and Ague in its simplest forms.
Imitations are abroad! Be particular to enquire for Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue. Sold everywhere.

Andrew Johnson.—The history of Andrew Johnson, candidate for Vice President, is interesting and remarkable He was born in Raleigh, N C, in 1808, and left an orphan at four years of age by the death of his father At ten he was apprenticed to a tailor, with whom he served eight years Owing to the poverty of his mother, he never attended school a day in his life While learning his trade he determined to educate himself, and learned to read by applying himself to the task two or three hours every night In 1826 he removed to Greenville, Tenn, and married —but still continued to work at this trade and support his mother Under the instruction of his wife he learned to write and cipher, and then turned his attention to other branches of education

He was elected to local offices in 1828, '29 and 30 In 1835 he was elected to the Legislature of Tennessee to which he was subsequently re-elected In 1840 he was Presidential elector on the Democratic ticket In 1841 he was elected to the State Senate, and 1843 to Congress, where he remained till [illegible] In 1853 he was elected Governor of Tennessee, and was re elected in 1855 When his second gubernatorial term expired, he was elected U S Senator for the full term, [illegible] in March of last year In politics Mr Johnson has always been a Democrat, and was conspicuous in Congress for his advocacy of the bill to refund the fine to Gen Jackson, of the tariff of 1846, of the Mexican war measures and of the Homestead bill

In 1861, he resisted all the influences brought to bear upon him in favor of secession and manfully stood up for the right He was merciless in his exposition of the [illegible] and ends of the rebellion, and declared that he would do all in his power to make treason odious In that spirit he has given himself to the cause with an energy and singleness of purpose worthy of all praise No ordinary man under the influences and [illegible] of a slave State could have raised himself, as he has, from the humblest [illegible] to political and official eminence, and those who sneer at him for having come [illegible] as "the ninth part of a man," [illegible], if they are honest, that he [illegible] the other eight parts, and is [illegible] peer of the noblest in the land

American Soldiers.—The desperately hard fights continued through three days at the entrenchments around Petersburg are without a parallel even in this war After the first battle of Bull Run the reports of the operations of our army were received with shouts of derision in Europe and it was publicly and impudently declared from half a dozen different sources that the Northern people would not fight We were declared to be a contemptible horde of trades men and money [illegible] sharp enough at bargains, but entirely without the lofty spirit that leads men to risk their lives in battle Those assertions have been amply answered on many a bloody field but never with such terrible distinctness as the last fights No such battles [illegible] are fought in Europe, and with any two European armies face to face one or the other would inevitably give way before there had been a tithe of the carnage that marked the assaults of Thursday Friday and Saturday last We have given evidence in this war all through of the possession of military power that may well alarm some European Governments—of a power sufficient to cope at once with both England and France, and with a very small army of such men as are now on the James river we could drive Maximilian out of Mexico in six months, however strongly he might be supported by the Powers interested in the destruction of the Monroe doctrine —N Y Herald, June22d

Certificate of Dr Hayes.

It is well known that the medicinal effect of Protoxide of Iron is lost by even a very brief exposure to air and that to maintain a solution of Protoxide of Iron, without further oxidation has been deemed impossible

In the Peruvian Syrup this desirable point is attained by COMBINATION IN A WAY BEFORE UNKNOWN and this solution may replace all the proto carbonates citrates and tartrates of the Materia Medica A A HAYES M D

IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DISCOVERY of modern chemistry and it is impossible to over-estimate its influence as a remedial agent Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica, and many of the most scientific and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system It is to act upon the

HEART, LIVER, KIDNEYS, DIGESTIVE ORGANS AND GLANDULAR SYSTEM,

and to have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation, it remained almost useless until Dr Henry Anders a physician and chemist of New York after years of patient labor and experiment discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve

PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER

without a solvent. This, considered impossible by the scientific world is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr J R Chilton of this city, and Prof Booth U S Mint Philadelphia The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the Faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals and its use recommended to practitioners (see "American Medical Monthly, July 6, 1856, page 76)

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms, Consumption, Cancer Heart Liver and Kidney Diseases Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia Bronchitis, etc

AS A TONIC

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine The patient recovers flesh strength and color hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble becomes full strong and florid
